

Meet the artist:

CHARLOTTE CATHEY HOLDER

"The mind of a child is so wonderfully free and imaginative. Everyday is an adventure, a magic carpet ride...and I try to convey this world of possibilities as a child sees it...perpetual summer, reachable stars, a world with no prejudice, no limits."

Charlotte

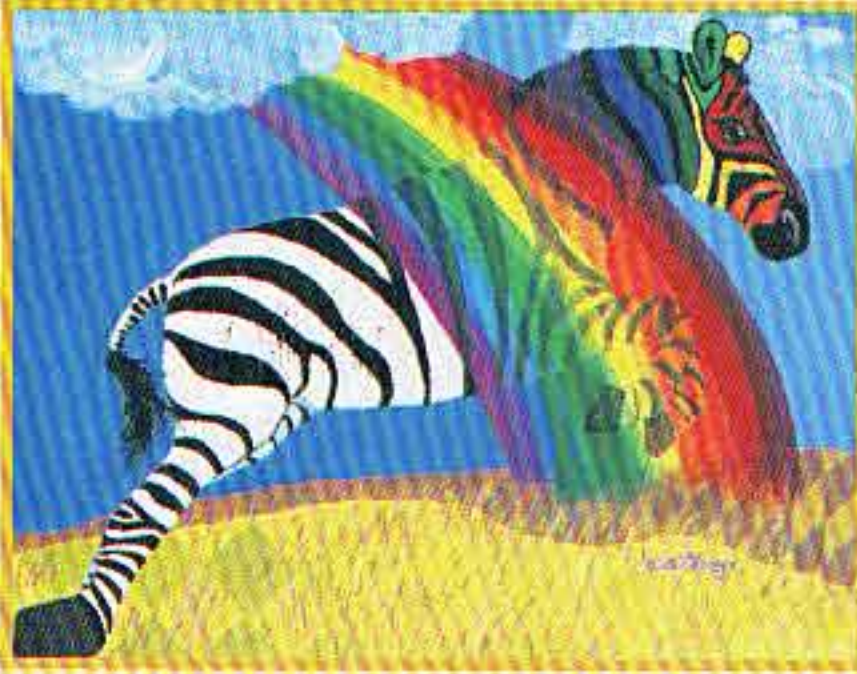

Charlotte grew up in Memphis, Tennessee. She received an AFA in Fine Arts from William Woods College in Fulton, Missouri and a BFA from Memphis State University. She has also studied art at the Memphis Academy of Art and has done graduate studies at UAH, Huntsville and UAB in Birmingham.

Charlotte is well known for her needlework designs that appear regularly in several publications including Stitch World, McCalls Quilting and Leisure Arts Magazine. She has also been the recipient of numerous awards for her paintings and designs. Her one woman art shows include Memphis State University, the Memphis Athletic Club, Huntsville Museum of Art, the Meridian Museum of Art in Meridian, Mississippi, The Birmingham Arts Alliance, Southern Research Institute and the Little Rock Art Museum in Little Rock, Arkansas.

She is actively involved in the Vestavia Hills Art Association, the Hoover Art Association and the Shelby County Art Association.
